Picaroon 2010
Cabernet Sauvignon

each in 2 bottle purchase
$10.99 single

A cabernet from Margaret River that is drinking beautifully in its youth with soft tannins, blackcurrant and plum-like fruit and a dollop of complexity from oak maturation. Will drink this way for a couple of years.

$13⁹⁹

Forester Estate 2011
Semillon Sauvignon Blanc

each in 2 bottle purchase
$14.99 single

A greater proportion of semillon than savvy means a little more weight, lemony characters and ageing ability. Nonetheless, the wine has a light zingy freshness that means it can be thoroughly enjoyed in its youth as well.

$14⁹⁹

Wirra Wirra 2010
Mrs Wigley Moscato

each in 2 bottle purchase
$16.99 single

Fresh, pink, charming, invigorating, spritzzy, what more do you want, how about some Turkish delight aromatics and some musky sweetness on the palate? The presentation in the clear bottle and crown seal is pretty smart as well. Enjoy soon.

$14⁹⁹

Fermoy Estate 2008
Cabernet Sauvignon Merlot

each in 2 bottle purchase
$16.99 single

This 'Vallingup Vineyards' red has typical eucalypt aromas with a waft of blackberry and a medium-weighted palate of black olive, drying grainy tannins and fine length. Will age beautifully over half a decade.

$16⁹⁹

Sticks 2010
Yarra Valley Pinot Noir

each in 2 bottle purchase
$17.99 single

A lighter pinot showing a clever use of oak and a palate of strawberry, kitchen spices, some funky dusty intrigue and distinctive drying tannins and acidity. This savoury wine would be a great foil for a herb-crusted rack of juicy pink lamb. Well-priced!

$17⁹⁹

Warner Glen Estate 2009 Chardonnay

each in 2 bottle purchase
$19.99 single

Traditional in style, this Margaret River wine has big flavours of stone fruit and citrus with some smoky oak, creamy butterscotch textures and firm finish. There is a lot going on here for your money. Try with roast chook and all the trimmings.

$18⁹⁹

Dance with the Devil 2010
Sauvignon Blanc Chenin Blanc

each in 2 bottle purchase
$19.99 single

A Margaret River blend with a difference, as the chenin proportion here adds a little honey and a solid dose of acidity to the lifted tropical and grassy sauvignon blanc. The wine is dry, has a flinty texture and is ideal as an aperitif or with light seafoods.

$19⁹⁹

Leeuwin Estate 2010
Siblings Sauvignon Blanc Semillon

each in 2 bottle purchase
$22.99 single

Lovely vintage for Margaret River whites and the quality shows in this blend. There is the tropical fruit and grassiness of sav blanc and the lively citrus and palate weight of semillon, which together gives balance and drinkability. Quaff it soon.

$24⁹⁹

Cape Mentelle 2008
Cabernet Merlot 'Trinders'

each in 2 bottle purchase
$26.99 single

This has Margaret River eucalyptus, wild berry fruits, savouriness, elegance and chalky, not aggressive, tannins. It's cool in the mouth, drinks beautifully now and will keep on drinking this way for some years.

Black red in colour this is big round and spicy with a concentration of chocolate, licorice and sweet vanilla oak. It has chalky tannins and a chewy texture that suits a big-flavoured beef steak. Your choice, Angus or Wagyu, grass or grain-fed.

Petaluma Croser NV

each in 2 bottle purchase
$23.99 single

Deep straw colour with good bead, this is youthful with breadly yeast, good weight, apple crumble flavours and cleansing acidity. From the cool Adelaide Hills, it's a wine that continues the line of popular sparklers from Croser.
